

Embracing the Earth's Wild Resources

A Global Conservation Vision

by Eugène Lapointe

Table of Contents

Preface

Acknowledgment

Chapter I

The Meaning of Conservation

A Holistic Approach

Sustainability / Sustainable Use

Human Rights and Conservation

Animal Rights vs. Conservation

The Precautionary Principle

Precaution as an Obstructive Tactic

Creating Balance and Sustainability

The Danger of Protectionism

Animal Welfare

Resource Management in General

Chapter 2

Conservation of Marine Resources

Marine Resources Management

Fisheries: Multi-Species Management

Aquaculture: A Management Tool

Those Opposing Conservation

Chapter 3

Global Tools in Conservation

Conservation Treaties and Institutions

Chapter 4

Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs) supporting Conservation

Traditional Communities

International and Regional NGOs

National and "Interested" NGOs

The Special Case of IUCN

Chapter 5

Global Forces Opposed to Conservation

NGOs and their Coalitions: A mbiguous, Extremists, Eco-Terrorists

Chapter 6

The Anti-Conservation Consequences of NGO Political Power

The Hijacking of International Treaties

Victims

Cultural Struggles

Eco Apartheid

The Sustainability Triangle

Prohibition of Access Rights to Resources

Threats to Sovereign Rights

The Role of Intimidation: Call for Secret Ballots

Consequences for Human Rights

Chapter 7

NGOs: duplicity and questionable tactics

Intimidation, Fraud, and “Eco-Terror”

IFAW and Greenpeace

Physical Bullying at Sea

Strange Behavior

Free Willy: A Legend Worth Millions

The Demonization of Hunting

Another Bear Story

A Public Relations Lesson: The Mitsubishi-Mexico Salt Plant

Pawns in NGOs Fund-Raising Schemes

Dall's Porpoise vs. the Environmental Intelligence Agency

Myths about Sea Turtles

PETA's Role in “Conservation”

Chapter 8

Whale Facts, for the Record

Summary of Worldwide Whale Species

The Contradictory HSUS Model

Chapter 9

Public Opinion: A Factor in Public Policy Development

The real meaning of the So-Called Public Opinion

Chinese IFAW Survey

Survey: 200 million Ignorant Americans

Peddling Influence

IFAW Ads and Testimonial Videotape: Unsuccessful Tactics

Hypocrisy and Situational Ethics: Netherlands and the Fur Issue

Commercial Fisheries and Protectionist NGOs: A Process of Deceit and Self-interest

Chapter 10

The Media's Role in Diminishing Conservation Efforts

Media Symbiosis: CNN & Greenpeace

When Death is Natural

Global Sanctuary Scheme

Poaching is Appalling

Cruel Waste of Tax Dollars

A Gloom and Doom Spin

Shark Campaign

Credibility and Cooperation

What Does Being Green Mean?

Chapter 11

Defiance of the “Green” Concept

Norwegian Defiance or the Greenest Country
Japanese Whale Hunting: the Tactic of Dire Warnings
A Stand on an Ethical High Ground
U.S. Media Whale Coverage

Chapter 12

The Political Conservation Game

I – Conservation and national politics

The Re-election Campaign of a USA Congressman from Washington State
When Politicians Disagree
A National Cheerleader for Greenpeace
A Sportsmen's Tribute
A Political Power Struggle over India's Elephants
Forward-Looking Integrity

II – International Political Context : The CITES Model

The (In) Effectiveness of CITES
The Decision-Making Process of CITES
An Agenda for Honest Politicians: Elephants and Social Order
International Dialogue on the African Elephant
India and Tigers
New Whaling Regime Atones for the Past
Political Leaders Duped and Disobeyed
Inappropriate Political Decisions and Loss of Leadership
The Hallmark of International Relationships
Roots of Disrespect

Chapter 13

Traditional People – First Peoples

Did You Say Food?
Environmental Conservation Through Cultural Preservation
A Reason to End Cultural Racism
Caribbean Traditions
NGO Racism
The Cultural Bias of the Australian Government
A View of Cultural Impacts

Chapter 14

On-going Feuds

Whale Watching vs. Commercial Whaling
The Myth of Trade or No Trade
The Cruellest Myth
Trapping: A Control for Wild Furbearers
Fur vs. Synthetics

Chapter 15

A Personal Call For International Cooperation

Quotations to Ponder
A Vision for Global Conservation
Reflection