Whaling Around the World

Edited by Kathy Happynook

WCW Publications; 8.5 x 5.5 format, 27 colour photographs, 5 black & white photographs, 12 illustrations, glossary, 74 pages, $10.00.

Whaling Around the World looks at coastal communities that rely on the cultural, nutritional and economic sustenance whaling provides and examines whaling traditions and techniques in Canada, the Caribbean, the Faroe Islands, Greenland, Iceland, Indonesia, Japan, Norway, Philippines, Russia, and the United States. Photos and illustrations depict hunting from skin boats and small coastal fishing vessels, and the preparation of whale meat and its by-products.
