

PROFILES

Mr Munesushe Munodawafa, Zimbabwe

- Was appointed to the post of Permanent Secretary for Environment, Climate, Tourism and Hospitality Industry in October 2018 which post he holds currently,
- He has served on a number of Board of Directors in the Public and Private Sectors,
- His passion is in breaking new ground, of which conservation is his newly found passion,
- He believes in speaking out on those issues that he believes in and sustainable management of resources is one such issue.

Hon. Pohamba Penomwenyo Shifeta, Namibia

- Hon. Pohamba Penomwenyo Shifeta is a political figure and a legal practitioner who is serving as Minister of Environment and Tourism in the Cabinet of the Republic of Namibia since 2015.
- In March 2015, Hon. Shifeta was promoted to the post of Minister of Environment and Tourism by President Dr. Hage Geingob. He is currently a member of both Central Committee and Politburo of the governing SWAPO Party in the Republic of Namibia.

H.E. Thuok NAO, Cambodia

- Prof. Thuok NAO, PhD.
- (Fisheries, Rural Development Management & Social Work)
- Secretary of State, MAFF, Cambodia.
- Chairman of CITES Management Authority of Cambodia
- IWC Commissioner for Cambodia
- IUCN/SSG/CSG Regional Vice Chair for East and Southeast Asia

Michael G. SABBETH, Esq., United States

- Michael Sabbeth is a lawyer, author, lecturer and consultant who lives in Denver, Colorado. For twenty-five years he has taught programs on ethical reasoning and strengthening moral character.
- Mr. Sabbeth has created a program for lawyers and Continuing Legal Education programs which teaches how to analyze the ethical content of arguments and how to craft the most persuasive factual and ethical arguments.
- In the fields of hunting and the shooting sports, Mr. Sabbeth has written many articles on hunting education focusing on hunting ethics and recruiting and retaining young hunters as well as on disabled and wounded persons, including veterans.